

Do1 / OTHER

Fictional Case Notice and Packet Index

Scope and non-use notice | Provenance: fixture-authored synthetic notice

This notice identifies the packet as fictional training material and defines the limits of any review.

Demonstration boundary	This packet does not determine trafficking, victim status, guilt, credibility, legal eligibility, or case outcome. Every source must be assessed by a qualified practitioner.
------------------------	---

Field	Fictional value
Packet reference	CFN-TRAINING-NV-01
Person	Nila Verin, also referred to as N. Vale
Origin / destination	Jurisdiction J-01 / Jurisdiction J-02, both fictional
Proceeding	J-02 v. N. Vale, fictional
Review purpose	Prepare a source-grounded practitioner handoff

Permitted demonstration uses

- Browser-local PDF extraction and source-health review.
- Identifier masking, deterministic leak checking, and sanitized derivatives.
- Source-grounded analysis proposals, human review, gaps, Nexus relationships, and Timeline.

Do1 / OTHER

Fictional Case Notice and Packet Index

Packet index | Provenance: fixture-authored synthetic notice

Seventeen files are supplied. Three use generic filenames so source type must be determined from their contents rather than the filename.

ID	File	Apparent source
D02	o2_job_advertisement.pdf	Recruitment record
D03	o3_recruiter_messages.pdf	Communication
D04	o4_offer_letter_and_contract.pdf	Recruitment record
D05-D06	Identity, travel, movement	Travel records
D07-D10	Ledgers, tasks, messages	Operational and communications
D11-D14	Police, intake, support, hearing	Review and proceeding records
D15-D17	Generic filenames	Type must be reviewed from content

Coverage limitation	The index records supplied files only. It does not prove that the packet is complete, authentic, or sufficient for a legal decision.
---------------------	--