

D11 / ALLEGED-OFFENCE AND PROCEDURAL RECORD

Fictional Police Incident Record

Incident recorded 20 March 2025 | Provenance: fictional procedural record

This fictional record documents an allegation and detention. It does not establish guilt.

Incident	Person named	Date / time	Location
J2-INC-320	N. Vale	20 March 2025, 14:25	Port Sable

Allegation

Police recorded an allegation that account-verification messages and transfer TR-0314 were connected to deceptive communications. The record states that police detained N. Vale pending interview.

Procedural fact only	An allegation and detention are not proof of an offence. The record makes no determination about trafficking, compulsion, credibility, or legal eligibility.
----------------------	--

D11 / ALLEGED-OFFENCE AND PROCEDURAL RECORD

Fictional Police Incident Record

Property and interview status | Provenance: fictional procedural record

The record lists recovered items and leaves interpretation and legal-support fields incomplete.

Field	Recorded value
Recovered phone	Device DEV-441, ownership not determined
Passport	Not recorded among recovered property
Interpreter	Not requested / language need not assessed
Legal aid	Referral pending
Interview completion	Deferred

Gap	The record does not show whether Nila understood the process, had legal advice, or had a safe opportunity to describe the reported pressure.
-----	--